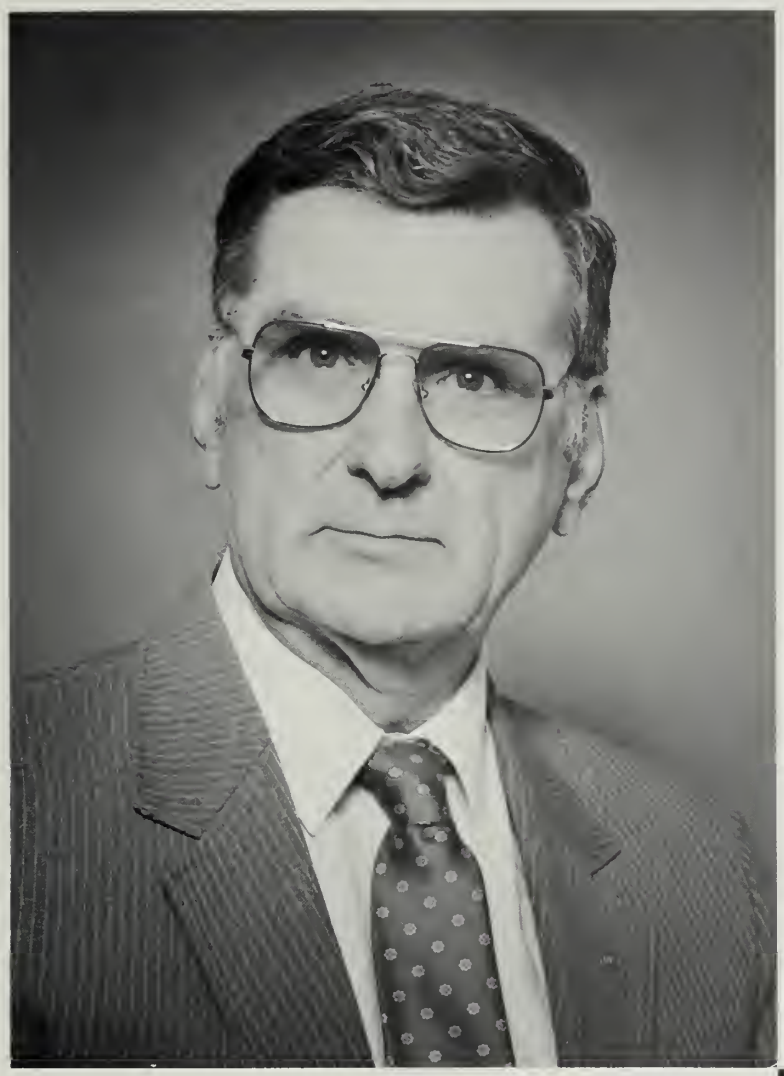
DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1989, dedicate this book to Mrs. Shirley Hovanasian. "Ma" has been there when we needed her. She has been supportive and caring. We will miss her as we leave. We know that she will miss us and all the other students at Methuen High as she is retiring this year from teaching.

SPECIAL THANKS



Best Wishes to Dr. Paul J. Zdanowicz upon his retirement.

I look back with tremendous pride and a great appreciation for the cooperation and dedication of the students, staff and Methuen residents on many significant accomplishments. Together, we implemented the then new special education, bilingual and elementary hot lunch programs. We witnessed the opening of one of the finest high school facilities anywhere and closed five obsolete elementary school buildings. Together, we saw enrollments increase to more than 6600 and decline to 5000. We now provide an education that assists bright, well-motivated young men and women to gain acceptance to the finest colleges and universities this country has to offer. Methuen High School graduates going on to further education in four-year degree granting schools doubled as did the total number going on to further education. In athletics, Methuen retired the Dalton Trophy demonstrating athletic superiority in our Division for three years.

Looking to the future you will witness the opening of Methuen's first Magnet School which we planned together. It will be a state-of-the-art 1200 pupil, K-8 facility. It will make possible the eventual closing of the out-dated Pleasant Valley and Howe Schools.

The potential of the Methuen Public School System is great, and I fervently hope that you will all continue to strive to achieve it fully. Although I won't be with you in the vineyards in person, I shall continue to be with you in heart and thoughts.

THANKS

"A FOND FAREWELL"

The class of 1989 would like to say thanks and give a fond farewell to Mrs. Shirley Hovanasian, Miss Ruth Lange, and Mr. William Russell. They have done a lot to contribute to our education. They have also contributed to the fun that we have had at Methuen High. Thank you and best wishes.

POWDERPUFF FOOTBALL

HALLOWEEN

HOMECOMING

This year twenty-eight senior girls ran for Homecoming Queen. The competition was narrowed down to three girls. The three finalists were: 2nd runner up, Tracy Melia; 1st runner up, Stacy Weston; and the 1988-89 Methuen High School Homecoming Queen, Stacie Pearson. The football team achieved a 28-14 victory over Xavarian in the homecoming game.

BAND

This year's band, led by drum major Donna Brooks and soloists John Schmottlach and Arthur Bailey, had a successful year while still in the rebuilding stage. Although made up mostly of freshmen, the band achieved a bronze medal at the Boston University New England Scholastic Band Association finals. Congratulations to the band for a fine job in their performances at the football games.

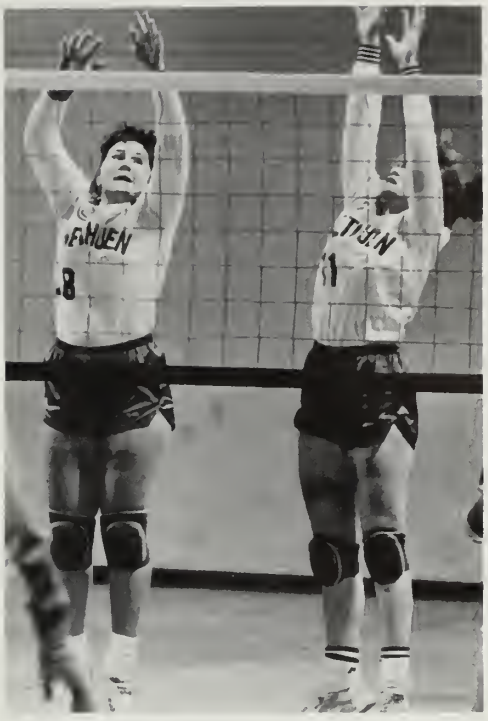
SPORTS

VOLLEYBALL



The girls' volleyball team had their best season in four years, finishing with a winning record of 11-9. Senior co-captains Kathy Hennessy and Tricia Murray led the team to the state tournament. Also helping the team achieve their successful record were seniors Beth Marlowe, Jill Iannuccilli, Karen Caraccio, Lauren Sanguedolce, and Andrea Messina. Receiving All-Conference honors were Tricia Murray and Juniors Wendy Tamis and Beth Pickles. Although Coach Smith has worked the girls hard this year, the results show how much the work paid off.

FIELD HOCKEY

The girls' field hockey team had a fairly "successful" season while still in the rebuilding stage. Leading the team were senior co-captains Michele Bourassa and Jill Sestini. Jill received All Star recognition and senior Jennifer Wicks made the All-Conference team. Despite their 2-13 record, Coach Bailey was pleased with the performance of the young team.

SOCCER

The boys' soccer team concluded a tough rebuilding season with a record of 1-11. Senior tri-captains Alan Picarillo, Jim Jaskot, and Jeff Zannini gave great leadership to the young team. Alan received All-Conference honors for this defensive abilities. Senior Randy Veno led the team in scoring. Other contributing seniors were Mauro Buco, Mark Lambert, and Bob Lang.

CROSS COUNTRY

The girls' cross country team had a productive season finishing with a record of 5-6. The team was led by senior captain Jennifer Jordan with tremendous help from junior Shauna Crafton. Shauna was selected to participate in the All-Conference team. Other seniors who made key contributions were Amy Wlodyka, Natalie Troia, and Nancy Segal. All of the members of the team gave it their best and showed great talent and improvement.

The boys' cross country team had a successful season finishing with a record of 7-5. Senior tri-captains Rob DiFalco, Tim Carney, and Chris Barbin were major contributors to the team's victories, as well as seniors Jason Bastek, Dave Apkarian, Dave Marsh, Dave Trachtenberg, Matt Garceau, and Ryan Zannini. The team finished second in the MVC small school division, just missing the championship with a loss to Haverhill. Making the Division II all-star team were Chris Barbin, Rob DiFalco, and junior Erik Dechane. Rob also received All-Conference honors.

FOOTBALL

The Methuen High football team rolled to a 6-4 record led by senior captains Bill Hitchmoth, Sean McCarthey, Dave Mambro, Pat Keough and Mark Kelleher. The two biggest wins of the season were against rivals Lawrence and Andover. Making the Eagle Tribune all star team and receiving all-conference honors were standout linemen Bill Hitchmoth, Pat Keough and Dave Mambro. Coach Klimas attributed the team's success to outstanding line play. This was the varsity's ninth consecutive winning season! The team finished fourth in the Merrimac Valley Conference due to a mid-season five game winning streak which included three shut outs.

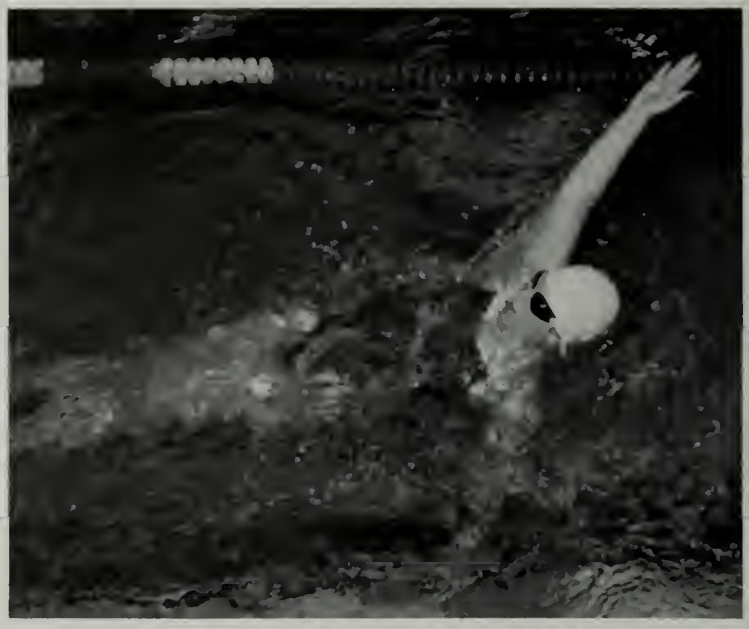
SWIMMING



The girls' swimming team finished their season off with a deceiving record of 1-10. Leading the team were senior co-captains Nicole Marotta and Katie Godin. Other contribution seniors were Bridget Pelletier, Nicole Field, and Sabelle Azar. The freestyle relay team of Nicole Marotta, Katie Godin, Sandy Sprague, and Stephanie Houser placed 12th at the Merrimack Valley Conference Championships. Although the season lacked victories, Coach Cronin was pleased with the team's improved abilities.

GIRLS' WINTER TRACK

The girls' winter track team ended their season with a 5-2 record, just missing the MVC title by one point. The team was led by senior co-captains Kathy Hennessy and Suzanne Keith. Other contributing seniors were Jen Jordan, Nancy Segal, Kristen Turnois, Natalie Troia, and Amy Wlodyka. Receiving All-Conference honors were Kathy Hennessy in the high jump, Suzanne Keith in the sprints, and Sandy Sprague in the shot put. Coach Blood attributes the team's success to their overall attitude and excellent work habits.

BOYS' WINTER TRACK

The boys' winter track team ran their way to a successful 5-1-1 season. Senior leadership proved to be a valuable asset to the team's overall performance. Placing well in the state meet were Bill Hitchmoth, winning the shot put; Chris Barbin, winning the 600; Craig Hosterman, placing second in the 55m hurdles; and the mile relay team of Matt Garceau, Tim Carney, Craig Hosterman, and Chris Barbin, placing second. Making All-Conference honors were Garceau, Barbin, and Hitchmoth. Hitchmoth also made Globe and Herald All-Scholastic honors.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball team dribbled their way to a successful 17-5 record. Senior leadership was provided by co-captains Kathy Hanley and Jill Sestini. Making all-conference honors was Beth Pickles and receiving all-star honors were Jen Arnold, Britta Pitochelli, and Wendy Tamis. This was the fourth consecutive year that the girls' basketball team has qualified for the state tournament. Other contributing seniors were Tricia Murray and Snow Halloran.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

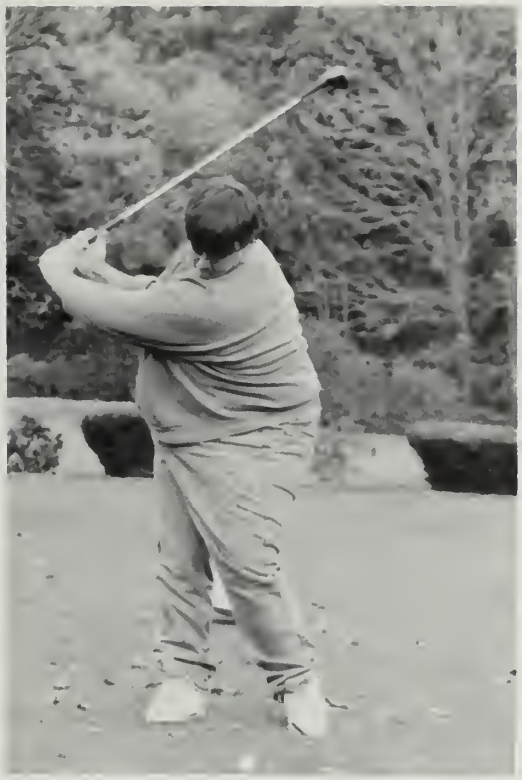
The boys' basketball team improved their record from last year, bringing it to 5-15. In Coach Samataro's first year, he compiled four more wins than the previous year did. Leading the team were senior co-captains Ed Zraket and Craig Bonneau. Ed Zraket and Dave Bueno were elected to the MVC All-Star Team. Although their record didn't show it, the team had many close games against many of the toughest teams in the league. The team finished third in their division.

GYMNASTICS

SEN

The girls' gymnastics team had a very successful season, finishing up with a 7-2 record. Seniors captains Jennifer Madison, Lisa Fusco, Kelly Sylvester, and Angela Lyons proved valuable by leading the team to their numerous victories. Qualifying for the individual state meet were Kerry Beeley, Caren Cioffi, and Andrea Mitchel. Coach Cheryl Sprague was very pleased with the team's overall performance.



GOLF

The Methuen High golf team putted it's way to a 9-6-2 record. This young team was led by junior captains Pete Doherty and Scott Simoes. Doherty's personal record was 9-5-3 and Simoes was 9-6-2. Receiving All-Star honors were Derek Ladd, Scott Simoes and Pete Doherty. The team is expected to continue it's success next year.

HOCKEY

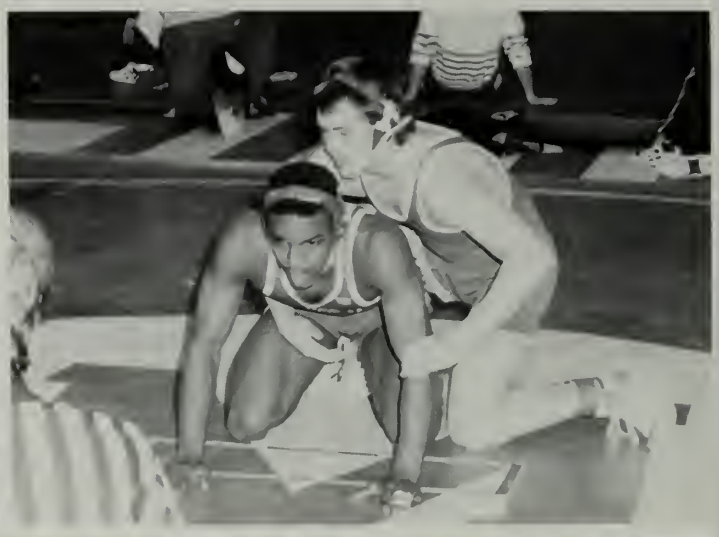
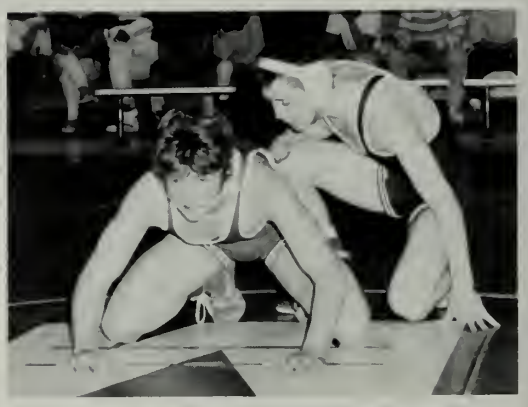
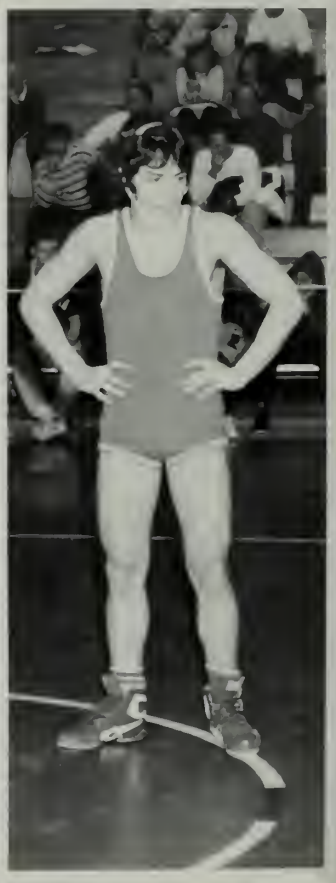
The varsity ice hockey team finished their season with a 4-14-1 record. The team was led by senior co-captains Paul Olenik, Dave Henry, Curt Medugno, and junior captain Jeff Ouellette. Top scorers were Jeff Ouellette, 19 points; Scott Simose, 17 points; Gary Sanderson, 16 points; Dave Henry, 15 points; and Paul Olenik, 13 points. Making the Small School All-Star Team were Jeff Ouellette and Paul Olenik. Despite being young and inexperienced, the team worked together for a successful season.

WRESTLING







The Methuen wrestling team pinned down a record of 25-4 for the season. The team was led by senior captains Andrew Bolduc and Patrick Keough. Placing in the state meet were Dan Alicia, 4th; Chris Gagnon, 6th; and Jim Jascot, 6th. Making the all-star team were Pat Keough, Dan Alicia, and Chris Gagnon. Other contributing seniors were Doug Barsamian, Sean McCarthy, Todd Niziak, Mark Keleher, and Dave Mambro.

SKI TEAM

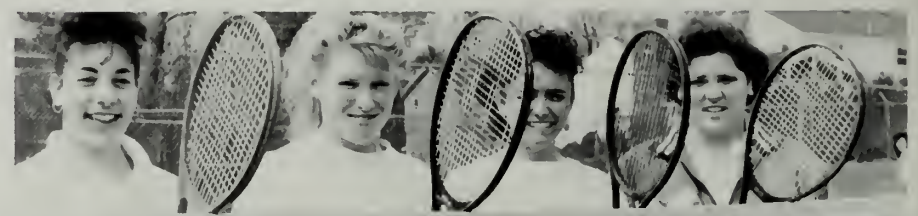
The girls' ski team finished the season with an 0-8 record. Leading the girls' team were co-captains Jen Wicks and Heather Galvin. The boys' ski team finished with a 0-10 record. Leading the boys' team was senior captain Tom Pappalardo. The team's dedication and enthusiasm proved to be an important factor in their overall performance.

CHEERLEADERS

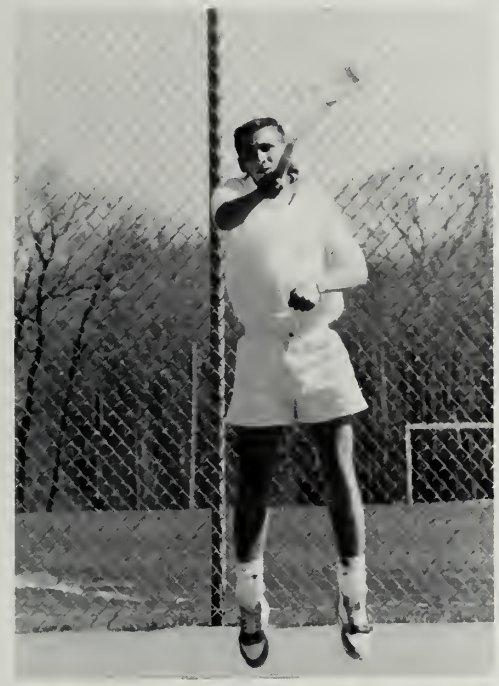
Senior members: Paula Fernandes, Jennifer Benanti

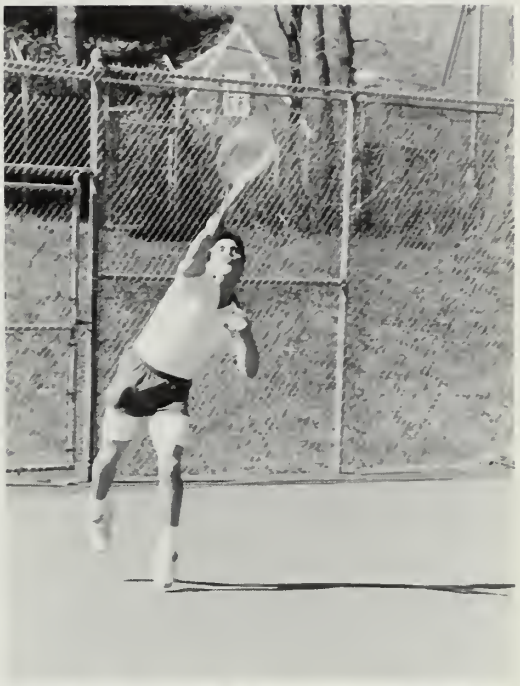
GIRLS TENNIS

The girls tennis team ended the year with a record of 3 wins and 15 losses. The team was lead by senior Jo-Ann Trovato and junior Erika Raschella. The girls tennis team, lead by a new coach, showed great improvement over the year.



BOYS TENNIS

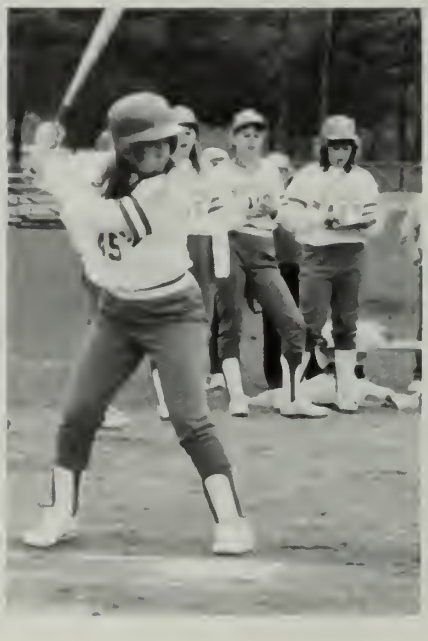


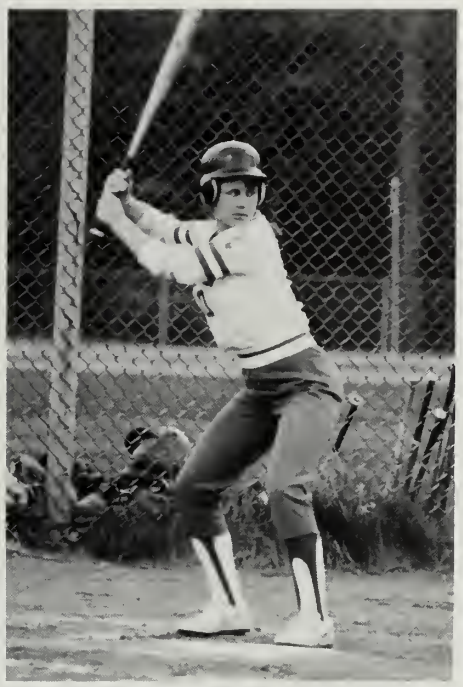


Senior Members: Mr. Don Smith, Brian Rossel, Joel Rodgers, Jerod Anderson, David Henry, Seung Park, Derrick Donegan, Chris Gagnon, Jason Bastek.

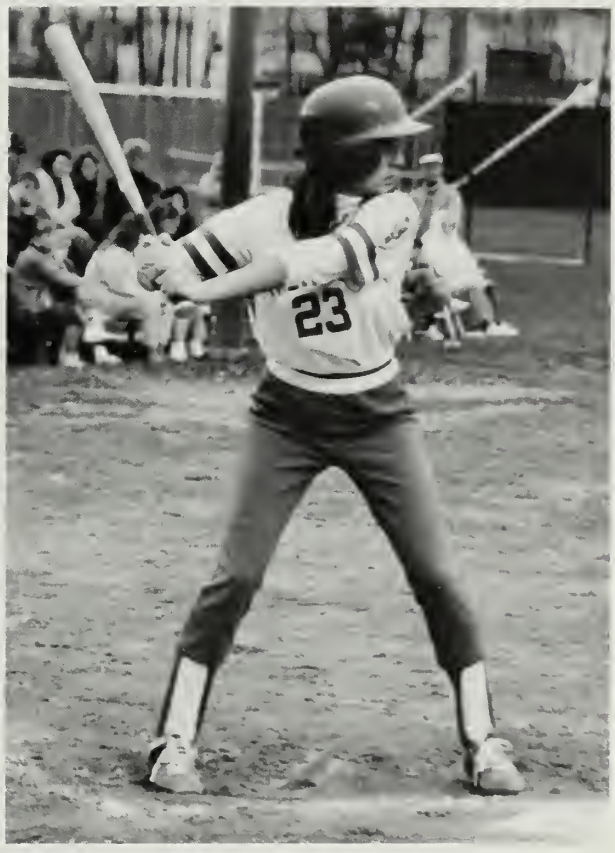
The boys tennis team compiled a record of 2 wins and 16 losses. This record does not reflect the hard work and effort made by all the members of the team and does not take into account their being in the most competitive league. Leading the team were senior captains Dave Henry, Jerry Anderson, Seung Park, and Joel Rodgers.

GIRLS SOFTBALL



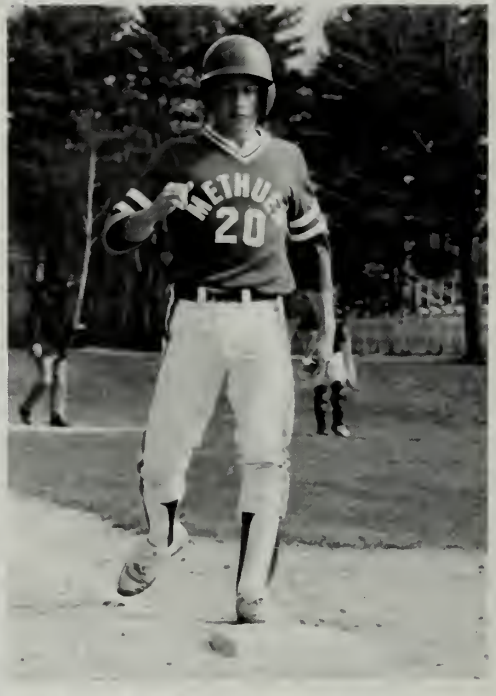


Senior Members: Jennifer Wicks, Andrea Messina, Tricia Murray, Mr. Dan Habib, Jill Sestini, Jill Iannuccilli.

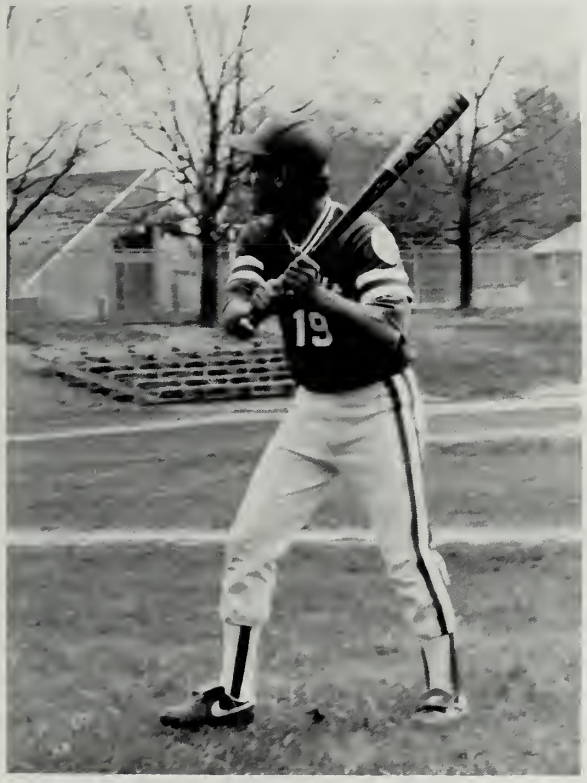


The girls softball team completed the year with a record of 13 wins and 7 losses. Leading the team were senior tri-captains Jill Sestini, Andrea Messina, and Tricia Murray. Tricia Murray and Jill Sestini were selected to the All-Conference Team. Tricia Murray was also named most valuable player of the Merrimack Valley Conference. The team qualified for the State Tournament.

BOYS BASEBALL

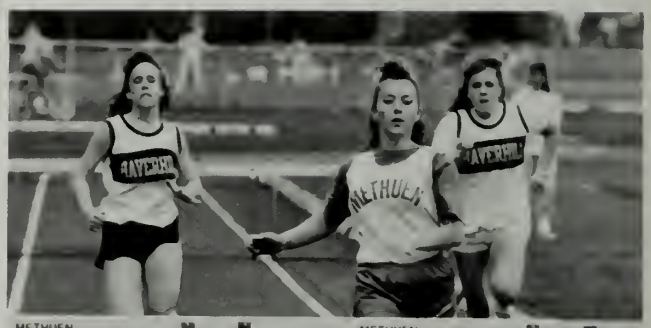


Senior Members: Mr. William Blood, Chuck Piazza, Tom Langlois, Dave Bueno, Michael Berryman, Ed Zraket, Mr. Doug Boyle.



The boys baseball team finished off the season with an impressive mark of 19 wins and 1 loss. The team was lead by senior tri-captains Mike Batts, Dave Bueno, and Ed Zraket. Receiving All-Conference honors were Dave Bueno and Bill Bonnano. Small school All-Star Honors were won by Ed Zraket, Mike Batts, and Jeff Coppeta. The team was seeded number one in the State Tournament.

GIRLS OUTDOOR TRACK



The girls track team ended the year with a record of 4 wins and 2 losses. Receiving All-Conference honors were Kathy Hennessey in the high jump, Beth Pickles in the shot-put, Britta Pittochelli, and Sherry Bannon in the long jump. The girls ran well in the large meets placing second in the Northern Area Meet, Andover Invitational, and the State Class B Meet.

Senior Members: Nancey Segal, Amy Wlodyka, Jennifer Jordan, Kristen Turonis.

BOYS OUTDOOR TRACK

The boys track team continued their winning ways finishing the year off with a 6-1 record. The boys have won nine out of the last twelve M.V.C. championships. Receiving All-Conference honors were Bill Hitchmoth in the discus, Shawn Douglas in the shot-put, Craig Hosterman in the High Hurdles, Matt Garceau in the 220, and the Mile Relay team of Chris Barbin, Mike Kisiel, Tim Carney, and Matt Garceau. The team fared well in the large meets placing second in the Northern Area Meet, Andover Invitational, and the State Class B Meet.

SAN JOS

WILL

Let it be known that we, the MHS class of 1989, being of sound and reasonable mind and realizing the uncertainties of life upon leaving these hallowed halls of learning do hereby decree this to be our last will and testament.

Signed and attested to this 1st day of June, 1989

Ed Zraket and Jason Amiss

We, Mr. Herlihy's English class, leave him a laughing box so he won't feel bad when his jokes bomb.

We, Jenn Dupont and Diane Habib, leave Mr. Smith a fuse to blow.

We, Dina Pascal and Jennifer Benanti, leave Katie Godin four new tires and a map of Boston.

I, Dina Pascal, leave Maria Shute a crash helmet.

I, Michelle Fitzwater, leave Mike Bats a second chance.

The varsity soccer team leaves Mark Hecht a new bench, since Mauro Buco still has the old one.

We, Kathy Hanley, Melissa Petrillo, and Heather Galvin, the senior Senate members, leave all the senate members of the following years all of our debts to pay off.

We, Jim Phelps and Jim Forzese, leave Matt Bistany the informers Red Sign Post and an Oldsmobile Cutlass 442 fully loaded.

I, Dave Mambro, leave Shane Jozokos a new nose.

We, Brian Bilodeau and Dave Mambro, leave Ed Guy a hot and passionate date with Paul Fernandes, like the one he tells us in his dreams. We also leave him a life-size poster of Paula to pin above his bed so he can see her every night.

We, Brian Bilodeau and Dave Mambro, leave Geno DeFiore the key to his ball and chain so he can come out with the guys more often. After he gets the key to his ball and chain to get away from his girlfriend, we leave him the key to his door so he can get by his father.

I, Mary Jane, leave Mr. Francis puns and limericks to be proud of.

I, Mary Jane, leave Miss Bailey the wonderful memories of her gym class that I never attended.

We, Tricia Murray, Jill Sestini, Snow Halloran, Kathy Hanley, and Jen Arnold, leave Britta Pitochelli all the inspiration that she gave to us during the last basketball season.

We, Kathy Hanley and Tricia Murray, leave Allyson Golec two more amigos to fill our spaces.

We, Randy Veno and Jeff Zannini, leave Alan Picarillo a license.

The varsity soccer team leaves Jeff Boivin a cockier attitude.

We, Mr. Pag's 4th period Pascal class, leave him Diane so he doesn't have to ask "Is Diane here?", some hot water for his Instant Pascal, and a printer that's always hummin'.

I, Diane Lawton, leave Michele Bourassa a month's worth of driving lessons.

We, period 4 study, leave Anita Cintron SAAB, the only car she cannot pronounce.

I, Rob DiFalco, leave Matt Garceau all the chicks he can handle in the next four years and a new pair of legs.

I, Captain Rob DiFalco, leave Junior Derek Foley the presidency of the "Legend Club."

We, Rob DiFalco and Matt Garceau, leave all Mr. McCormick's future psychology students our money-grubbing, male-chauvanist thoughts and ideas.

I, Tammi Stanwood, leave Pamela Romanelli a punching bag that won't hit back.

I, Tammi Stanwood, leave Anita Cintron a watch set ahead so she can get to places on time.

I, Deana Drummond, leave Bill Hitchmoth my half of the title of yearbook business manager, since he decided to take it over anyway.

I, Deana Drummond, leave Chris Gagnon "I love you" cards to pass out to all the girls he has loved before.

I, Geno DiFiore, leave Jimmy Laudani a bowl of pasta and a "Get in Shape Girl Weight Set"

We, Geno DiFiore and Jimmy Laudani, leave Chris "Duck" Gagnon a lifetime supply of lip therapy.

I, Jen Sharrock, leave Carol Lister all of my photo albums of the D.D.'s

I, Jen Sharrock, leave Kevin Lehane a new personality.

I, Karen, leave Kerry Caraccio a lyric book for all of the songs she just can't seem to remember.

Karen Caraccio and the rest of Methuen High leave Rob DiFalco a "Big Ego" Award.

We, the soccer team, leave Jeff Zannini a book on 101 ways to get out of practices.

We, the senior class, leave Barbara Skaff a bumper car.

I, Craig Bonneau, leave Joe Broccoli the wish of breaking his record of 7 girls at one time.

I, Jessica Hurley, leave Mr. Herlihy a haunted mansion to tell stories about.

I, Melissa Petrillo, leave Jimmy Laudani a real wardrobe he can take home.

I, Melissa Petrillo, leave Katie Godin a window and a cup so she won't bother me anymore.

We, Melissa Petrillo and Katie Godin, leave Mike Berryman a plane ticket to Florida so he can really go.

We, the class of 89, leave Andrea Messina some real jokes to tell.

We, the boys, leave Bill Hitchmoth an ice pack to cool the swelling of his head.

We, Ed and Jay, leave the Horn Sisters one more 7th period study in the library together.

We, Claudine Boie, Marie Shute, and Nicole Marotta, leave Jenn Lally a box of dry ice for those special lonely nights.

I, Katie Godin, leave Matt Donovan a roll of electric tape.

I, Jen Wicks, leave Sharon Bleczinski one pair of shoes to match all her outfits instead of buying out every shoe store.

I, Jen Wicks, leave next year's boys' ski team one win so they can at least say they beat someone.

I, Heather, leave Angela all the restaurant receipts from Andover Jade, Bickfords, Dennys, Pizza Hut, Friendlys, and Ho-Jo's.

I, Heather Davies, leave Donna Giuffre another day and another zero.

We, Angela Lyons and Monique Cody, leave Mike Ward and Scott Simose a can of whipped cream.

We, Angela Lyons and Monique Cody, leave Jennifer Madison to Fred Gorham.

I, Julie DiZoglio, leave Scott his matchbox car he has always dreamed about.

I, Julie DiZoglio, leave Dave Mambro an electric razor.

We, the class of 89, leave Bill Hitchmoth and Sean McCarthy a freezer with a lifetime supply of ice.

I, Julie DiZoglio, leave Ann Marie Baillargeon a nice, cute boyfriend that knows how to treat her right.

Locker ML 122 leaves locker ML 120 someone else to open it for him.

Pam and Stacey leave Mrs. Greene peace and quiet from her 4th period class.

I, Paula Fernandes, leave Mrs. Rhumshottel a freshman who knows all the good gossip.

The Class of 89 leaves behind $1.25 so Dave Habib can pay off his Dollars for Scholars donation.

I, John Tiani, leave behind my motto "Less work, Better grades."

I, Dena Riccio, leave Paul Perry a year's supply of gum

Period 2 Drama class leaves Geno piano lessons.

I, Edward Guy, leave David Habib my looks so that he may be able to actually brag about women.

I, Edward Guy, leave Rob DiFalco a new hairstyle.

I, Jennifer Benanti, leave Pat Keough a gallon of orange juice so he will not have to come over my house after a party because he claims he is thirsty.

I, Roxanne, leave Patricia the memories of the Mr. Banana Boat days.

I, Shannon McCann, leave Shawn Trussel a can of red spray paint.

Seventh period AP Calculus class leaves Brian Rossell a calculus notebook.

I, Paula Huggan, leave Naomi one week of good health.

I, Sherry, leave April Dailey at least 4 years worth of diapers.

I, Michelle Simmons, leave Jill Iannuccilli and Jen Dupont real jobs.

I, Michelle Simmons, leave Tammi Stanwood one more love story.

We, the girls of 4th period study, leave Luis Rodriguez a gift certificate to the Methuen High snackline.

I, Kris Johnson, leave Ed Guy what he's been begging me for all year — a dream date with Tom.

I, Barbara Skaff, leave Jason Crago a can of glue because he is so stuck on himself.

The homeroom of ML2 leaves Mr. Klimas a new pair of maroon bike pants.

We, the boys, leave Mike Berryman a blow up doll of himself.

Darren and the 6th period girls leave Mrs. Pelletier to science to replace those poor guinea pigs for radioactive experiments.

I, Karyn Feole, leave Jay Amiss the towel he dropped at Katie's.

I, Karyn Feole, leave Dave Habib a clean T-shirt.

I, Karyn Feole, leave Shawn Douglas the nickname Booga.

We, the students of period one physics, leave Mr. Russell a new stopwatch and thermometer for all those we broke, and a new lab coat for every day of the week.

I, Patty Keleher, leave Tracy Roy a ticket to the nearest mental hospital, come and visit me any time.

We, the pschology students, leave Mr. Fiorentini new friends to talk about.

We, the class of 89, leave Geno a Valijm to calm him down.

I, Nicole Field, leave Elaine Malek all the advice on guys she needs.

We, Boober and Gerber, leave Donk "The Cow."

We, Sandy and Nikki, leave Christine Russo some real hair dye.

I, Jody, leave Stacie Pearson and Jen Watson memories of our almost fatal drive to the Worcester Centrum.

I, Gail Cyr, leave Carol Lister Sharon's driveway for the weekend.

I, Gail Cyr, leave Jen Sharrock a curling iron and a Whitney Houston tape.

I, Andrea Messina, leave Tricia Murry and Deanna Drummond a full tank of gas for the next year.

I, Andrea Messina, leave Jill Iannuccilli a license for her Big Wheel.

PROPHECY

The year is 1999 and the celebrated occasion is the 10th year reunion of the Methuen High Class of 1989. The reunion this year is held on the newly converted passenger ship, U.S.S. Ranger. The reunion this year, unlike any other year, is held on a ship because it is easier to pick up some former classmates in the countries in which they now reside. The skipper of the ship, Arthur Nicholson, orders his first mate, Paul Bartolomucci, to raise anchor and leave the port of Boston. As we depart, we see some familiar faces on board the ship.

After being held responsible for the deaths of hundreds because of a slight miscalculation in a nuclear engineering experiment, John Schmottlach slips into a collapsed mental state and decides to join the Ice Capades. Surprisingly enough, John becomes the star of the show with his solo performance entitled "Gypsy on Ice."

The Boston Celtics have now won six consecutive world championships and they are all graduates from the class of 1989. Ryan Zannini, Craig Bonneau, Jason Amiss, Luis Rodriguez, and Dave Bueno all agree that they couldn't have won anything without the guidance of the coach-of-the-year, George Sabens.

As we stroll towards the bar, making sure not to step on Tim Carney, we see Geno DiFiore trying to pick up women in order to get Brian Bilodeau a date for the reunion.

The famed attorney, Nicole Marotta, fresh out of jail for harassing her own clients, will be representing a former classmate, Heather Galvin, in court. Heather, who is now a physical therapist, is being sued for malpractice by teacher Dina Pascal. Dina went to Heather for therapy after her second grade students attacked her with erasers.

After losing her job because of her attendance record, Marci Deluca has dedicated all her time to Gold's Gym and has just won her 6th world title as the women's weightlifting champion.

After winning the perfect attendance award, Edna Leach went on to become Methuen High's truant officer. She has now developed a plan whereby any student attending school 3 days in a row will be indefinitely suspended.

The wedding bells have just rung for Kathy Hanley as she has finally become a mafia princess by marrying her "Italian Stallion." She also received half of his territory as a wedding gift.

The president of the Sheraton Hotel Chains, Dave Henry, has made it mandatory that hammocks be installed in all trees and bushes on the hotel property.

Ed Zraket has found out that it does indeed pay to smile as he is making a reported $150.000 a year as the poster boy for the American Dental Association.

After flunking out of driving school, Jill Iannuccilli gave up the idea of ever getting her license. She can be seen driving around in her 1989 Coleco Big Wheel given to her by the Class of 1989. Rumor has it that if she gets one more speeding ticket, her Big Wheel will be impounded.

After dropping out of medical school, Alan Picarillo set the world record for most consecutive "Jeopardy" wins and has retired on his winnings. It is rumored that he will come out of retirement to replace the aging Alex Trebek as host.

Chris Gagnon has gone on to solve the world's energy problems by finding an economical way to harness the sun's energy.

Mike Fournier has gone on to make hundreds of thousands by marketing his famous funny brownies. He is now into franchising and hundreds of Mike's Bake Shops have popped up around the country.

After flunking out of their colleges, Matt Garceau, Jerry Anderson, Bill Hitchmoth, and Jason Bastek have joined together to fulfill their high school ambition to form the rap posse MC Delta T and DJ EZ-RUSS. Rowdy Russ will join the rest of the group on the ship for a live performance.

Eddie Guy and Rob DiFalco have just finished their second novel, How to Win Friends and Influence People, Part II. Unfortunately, Part I of their book was a flop with only 50 copies sold. The only problem was that Rob and Eddie each bought 25 copies.

Suzanne Keith, as she predicted 10 years earlier, has married her aspiring musician and in hopes of his making it big, she has cut off all her hair to sell it in order to buy him an amplifier for his guitar. Little did she know her husband sold his guitar in order to buy her a diamond-studded hairpiece.

After unsuccessful pro careers, Curt Medugno, Dan Getchell, Sean McCarthy, Sean Gallagher, Pat Keough, and Dave Mambro have all returned back to their roots in Methuen to coach Pop Warner football. They are all vying for the top position in town — Methuen High Varsity Coach, currently held by Sean Cyr.

The famed chemist, Spencer Hulsebus, has just received the Nobel Prize for developing a shatter-proof, heat resistant glass for all school buses.

Upon realizing that Prince and Shelia E. are the same person, Jerelyn Lozeau has sold her little red Corvette and dance studio, Purple Rain, and has become a devout Barry Manilow fan.

Mike Godin has successfully patented a new line of deluxe party vans which can be seen smokin' across the highways of the US. Owners of the new model are Andrew Bolduc, Brian Martineau, and Rob Pappalardo.

We also received some bad news on the voyage. Deana Drummond, fresh off her discovery of a formula that makes nails grow overnight, was trampled to death by the overgrateful and overexcited members of Nailbiters Anonymous.

Mark Maciareillo, after reaching his career goal in life as head of the Megadeth fan club, tragically died as he was strung from the lighting system at an area concert by 20,000 fans, just for the fun of it.

As the ship enters the tropical waters of the Carribbean, we see some of our old classmates. Cheryl Petralia has gone on to become roving reporter for the National Enquirer. She was lately on location in Puerto Rico working on a feature story.

After fleeing the country after the murders of Mrs. Pelletier and Mrs. Shaw, Lynne Hajjar fled to Aruba and married Thom. They have just been blessed with their first newborn, Cameron Neely Baird.

We also meet up with Dave Habib, who after many small business failures has just made his second billion living off his "coffee" plantation in Columbia.

While in transit through the Panama Canal, Stacie Person catches up with us because she missed the ship when it left Boston. Stacie dropped out of dental school and then moved to the Black Forest in Germany where she is now world known for her cuckoo clocks that always seem to be 10 minutes late.

As we travel up the West Coast, we stop in at Alcatraz Island to visit Mike Batts. In only his second time being caught for cheating, the famed Wall Street stockbroker is now serving 10 years for inside trading, tax evasion, and fraud.

We continue on to Hollywood where many Methuen High graduates have made it big.

After an unsuccessful career in politics, Steve Chasse decided to become an actor and is the star of the hit comedy series "We're Laughing at You, Not With You."

Dawn Baker and Dan Fugge have become famous soap opera stars with their new serial "As the Punches Fly." In their spare time they double as Dangerous Danny and Dawn the Junkyard Mutt. They are scheduled to go against the team of Jammin' Jen Arnold and Deadly Dave Baldwin in the main event of Wrestlemania XV.

Maria Shute has taken over the radio waves and replaced Dr. Ruth with her own show, "Chat With Ria."

After and inspiring performance in the school play, Carrie Belanger, Keith Neal, and Dina Riccio fled to Hollywood to start their own TV show, "The Duprees After Dark" which can be seen at the not-so-prime hour of 3:00 am on Channel 44.

Unfortunately, there are some classmates who have missed this trip.

Arthur Bailey, after graduation from Berkley College of Music, reportedly spent the past six years penniless in the streets of Boston. He was spotted last in a local bar claiming he is the reincarnation of Elvis.

Randy Veno was last seen running his soccer laps with his trusty camera around his neck.

Jen Wicks, who fulfilled her lifetime dream of getting on the cover of a Wheaties box by winning four consecutive World Cups in skiing, was last seen chasing Tom Cruise throughout Europe.

Joel Rodgers, who was told by his friends that Jen was really lost in an avalanche, now spends all of his time going from supermarket to supermarket cutting the covers off Wheaties boxes.

While looking for his glasses, Derek Donegan stumbled into the caves of Kentucky and hasn't been seen since.

Well, it has been an enjoyable trip as we all had fun visiting with and talking to old friends. It will be sad as we depart again — but always if you get too lonely, just go to the McDonalds in Methuen on a weekend night and you'll be sure to find an old friend.

Joel Rodgers & Alan Picarillo

HISTORY

The day is Wednesday, September 4, 1985. In the early morning hour, we see about 365 lost children running amuck trying to find their homerooms. After a warm welcome from our principal Robert Jarvis, we are handed our maps and sent on our way. Soon we get the hang of it. We elect class officers to guide us and they are President Joel Rodgers, Vice President Lauren Sanguedolce, Secretary Jennifer Hurley, and Treasurer Tammy Frechette. Thanks to a grant of $5,000 to Methuen High School from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, a SADD-Peer Leadership program is started that will continue to grow throughout our four years. Great contributors are Anne Tremblay, Donna Brooks, Lynne Hajjar, and Joel Rodgers. Besides such activities, we witness true Ranger athletic pride as the soccer team and boys' and girls' track team win the MVC. The outstanding girls' basketball team also wins the MVC and goes on to win the state title. Before we know it, spring arrives and elections for sophomore class officers are held. The President and Vice-President are again Joel Rodgers and Lauren Sanguedolce, Secretary Bridget Pelletier, and Treasurer David Henry. After we choose new classes, the school year comes to a close.

We survive the summer and sophomore year quickly comes around. The excitement of this year is the picking and receiving of our class rings. Our athletes continue to shine as the girls' basketball team, including Carrie Belanger, Jennifer Arnold, Tricia Murray, and Snow Halloran win the MVC. The boys' and girls' indoor track teams also win the MVC. The hockey team with members Dave Henry, Randy Veno, Dan Fugge, Paul Olenik, and Curt Medugno also advances to the State Finals for the first time in Ranger history. Our class stands out not only athletically, but also academically as 29 sophomores including Jo-Ann Trovato, Rob St. Germain, Patricia Kelleher, Donna Charest, JoAnn Ouellette, and Robert Chase are inducted into the National Honor Society. A hectic spring is drenched with elections, course selections, and a three-day flood vacation. The results of the elections for junior class officers are President Joel Rodgers, Vice-President Mike Batts, Secretary Stacy Weston, and Treasurer David Henry. As the year comes to an end, so does the job of principal Robert Jarvis. Summer comes and goes and now we're ready for junior year.

This year is filled with SAT preparation, college fairs, and guidance appointments. Once again our sports teams are outstanding. The boys' cross country team starring Rob DiFalco wins the MVC. The boys' and girls' indoor and outdoor track teams starring triple-jumper Matt Garceau and high jumper Kathy Hennessy win the MVC. The girls' basketball team and the softball team also win the MVC. The ski team, led by Heather Galvin, Sharon Bleczinski, and Jen Wicks, wins its very first meet in over four years, and the mile-relay team including Tim Carney wins the state title. Springtime brings many activities beginning with the Model U.N. Methuen students shine as the group of Steve Chasse, Ryan Zannini, Beth Marlows, Mike Batts, Bill Andrews, John Tiani, and Chris Lozowski win best visiting delegation. Four juniors, Chris Barbin, Mary Regan, Rob DiFalco, and Mike Fournier, are inducted into the National Honor Society. Next year's honor society officers are elected and they are President Ryan Zannini, Vice President Chris Barbin, Secretary Lynne Hajjar, Treasurer Stacie Pearson, and Historian Alan Picarillo. On April 8th, our junior prom was held at DiBurro's in Bradford. Our theme "I've Had the Time of My Life" reflects the fun almost everybody had. Along with the weather, things started to heat up as the elections for Senior Class officers are held. Although there is a big controversy concerning stuffed ballot boxes and cheating, the final outcome is President Steve Chasse, Vice President Mike Batts, Secretary Stacy Weston, and Treasurer Stacie Pearson. Courses for next year are chosen and so are Methuen High's delegates to attend Girls' State and Boys' State. Lynne Hajjar, April Naylor, and Stacie Pearson attend Girls' State and Ryan Zannini, Alan Picarillo, John Schmottlach, Joel Rodgers, Mike Batts, Brian Rossell, Ed Zraket, and Jason Bastek attend Boys' State at Bentley College. Junior year ends with the retiring of Mrs. Hershfield and Mr. Jennings, both legends at Methuen High.

Senior year begins with the formal announcements of our new principal Mr. Nick. Superintendent Zdanowicz retires and is replaced by Mr. Littlefield. Methuen High's athletic teams continue their excellence as the girls' basketball team led by captains Jill Sestini and Kathy Hanley wins the MVC and the volleyball team makes the state playoffs. The boys' indoor and outdoor track teams win the MVC and Chris Barbin wins a gold medal for his astonishing win in the 600 yard run. Bill Hitchmoth also wins the all-state title for his outstanding shotput efforts. The boys' baseball team wins the MVC and works their way up to being ranked first in the state.

Steve Chasse makes an intense effort to gain back our Senior privileges and succeeds. Though not all our wishes are granted, Steve makes a big start! In October, our Homecoming Queen is chosen. Stacie Person wins the crown and Stacy Weston and Tracy Melia are first and second runner-up. The Senior Class Play "Rumbo" is a huge success starring Joel Rodgers and Deana Drummond and co-starring Ed Guy and Paula Fernandes. It goes down as one of the best plays ever put on by Methuen High! The Student Senate, led by President Kathy Hanley, also does a great job in receiving the School Committee's approval to wear shorts no higher than two inches above the knee. It seems to be working well and we're all a lot "cooler" now! The Senior Prom is held at the Sheraton Rolling Green in Andover and with the theme song entitled "Why Can't This Night Go On Forever?" some of us thought it would as we struggled to cut our steak. The DJ also makes for a memorable evening by playing Queensryche and Metallica and the neverending five slow songs in a row. In all, it's fun to see everyone dressed up and dancing. Hypnotist Francis Cloutier brings to Methuen High an interesting couple of hours in October and again in April as we watch our friends sit on stage (or dance up to the stage), and do things we'd never seen them do before. Shirley Hovanasian better known as "Ma," William Russell, known by some as "DJ EZ-Russ," and Miss Lange of the Business Department will retire this year and will be missed by everyone. We will also be without Mr. Bartolomucci, better known as Mr. B. The class wishes you all the best of luck.

Well, the year is almost over. No more elections and no more course selections, just 328 smiling faces ready for the future and ready to graduate. The four years have flown by, but the memories made will last a lifetime!

Good Luck Everyone!!!
Lynne Hajjar & Stacie Pearson
